1	Apologies for absence: Cllr Hayleigh Gascoigne
2	Minutes of previous meeting Agreed
3	Actions arising from last meeting 1. Speed assessment for South GWP - completed but data not yet analysed. Results should be ready for next meeting. 2. Archaeological trail/ notice boards - Denise Macdonld ○ No updates as yet. DM not present at meeting.
4	Matters Arising ● Bands on the Boundary and Activities Week cancelled due to extended COVID restrictions

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● David Johnston MP holding debate in parliament on Thursday 17th June ● Illegal Encampment - thanks to the swift and coordinated action of residents, our local councillors, and the police, the illegal encampment was quickly moved on. Defences are being reviewed at the site of entry and surrounding areas. It was noted that the bunds to the north of GWP, have been extremely effective, and now also provide an attractive habitat for wildlife, and especially pollinators.
5	Correspondence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● GWP car park on Greenwood Way (Caterpillar Park) - any concerns or issues to be addressed to Taylor Wimpey on oxfordshirecustomerservices@taylorwimpey.com/01235541971 ● Noise on Gary O'Donnell Road - Unsure when the work creating the noise is due to be completed, but we are arranging a site walk through with Taylor Wimpey & councillors, and we will endeavour to get a date from them then. In the meantime, please use the details above to contact Taylor Wimpey if necessary.
9	Any Other Business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Flooded footpaths around Boundary Park should now be resolved. Remedial works have been carried out to damaged drains. Please continue to report any drainage issues to Taylor Wimpey. ● Community Café has resumed Term Time Thursdays 10-12 ● Next community litter pick planned for Saturday 26th June 11am-1pm
